mybet Group chooses Evolution to strengthen Live Casino offering

Evolution Gaming, leading provider of Live Casino solutions, has announced that it has signed an agreement with mybet Group.

mybet Group is licensed in multiple European countries to offer sports betting, casino and live casino – all available via mybet.com and also through German land-based betting shops. In addition, the group supplies regional betting providers in Europe and Africa as a B2B service provider.

Initially mybet will select from the full portfolio of shared Evolution live tables, standard and VIP, enabling play on desktop, tablet and smartphone. The company will also look to take Evolution's Deutsches Roulette native speaking table and offer this localised solution to its German speaking customer base.

Licensed by MGA (Malta Gaming Authority), the extended mybet Live Casino offering is expected to go live early in Q2 2017.

Markus Peuler, CEO at mybet, said: "We are completely re-vamping all of our offerings at mybet to create a fantastic user experience across both verticals. The new-look casino is proving highly popular with our existing customers, so adding further live content is the logical next step. Evolution Gaming was an obvious addition for us. With access to the Evolution Live Casino portfolio we are able to offer our players the widest range of tables across desktop, tablet and smartphone. With Evolution's extensive choice of Roulette, Blackjack, Baccarat, Poker variants and more, we will have the most compelling Live Casino offering. Not only that, but we are extremely excited about the new Evolution titles launched recently and in the pipeline."

Sebastian Johannisson, Chief Commercial Officer at Evolution, added: "We are naturally delighted to be working with mybet Group. With around 14,000 sports bets and live bets online and thousands of sporting events covered during each week, mybet is one of the largest gaming service providers of its kind."

mybet Holding SE is the parent company of the mybet Group. The shares of mybet Holding SE are listed on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange in the Prime Standard.
